

Paradise City Arts Festivals Climbs to the Top AmericanStyle Readers Reveal America's Favorite Art Fairs & Festivals

Baltimore, Md. (December 14, 2007)—After two years in second place, the Paradise City Arts Festivals have earned the top spot in AmericanStyle magazine's 2008 Top 10 Fairs & Festivals readers' poll. Now in its fourth year, the annual readers' poll has become a coveted award by the nation's top art events.

The 2008 Top 10 Art Fairs and Festivals are:

1. Paradise City Arts Festivals (Northampton, Mass.; Marlborough, Mass.; Philadelphia, Pa.)
2. Scottsdale Arts Festival (Scottsdale, Ariz.)
3. Long's Park Art & Craft Festival (Lancaster, Pa.)
4. Ann Arbor Art Fairs (Ann Arbor, Mich.)
5. The American Craft Shows (Atlanta, Ga., Baltimore, Md.; Charlotte, N.C.; San Francisco, Calif.; Sarasota, Fla.; St. Paul, Minn.)
6. Craft Fair of the Southern Highlands (Asheville, N.C.)
7. Fiesta Arts Fair (San Antonio, Texas)
8. La Quinta Arts Festival (La Quinta, Calif.)
9. Francisco's Farm Arts Festival at Midway College (Midway, Ky.)
10. Des Moines Arts Festival (Des Moines, Iowa)

Ballots appeared in the August and October 2007 issues and on www.AmericanStyle.com. A full write-up will be available in the February 2008 issue of AmericanStyle, which hits newsstands December 18, 2007.

The issue also features AmericanStyle's Essential Guide to Fairs & Festivals, a month-by-month planning calendar of some of the country's most prestigious craft events.

About AmericanStyle

AmericanStyle magazine is the nation's premier arts lifestyle magazine for art collectors, enthusiasts and travelers. Published bi-monthly, AmericanStyle can be found online at www.AmericanStyle.com and on newsstands nationwide. AmericanStyle was named Baltimore's Best Niche Magazine by Baltimore magazine in 2003.

###